

Ed Linton “The FireDog”

Ed Linton known as “FireDog”, who is a member of Lodge 128 and has a background in first aid, will be providing www.boilermaker.ca readers with first aid tips. The shared notes are based on his actual experience and knowledge he learned from his experiences and training. They are in no way intended to replace a provincially regulated First Aid course.

- Ed Linton started his career as a “Tanky” September 1980.
- ED did training with 1st RCR as a SARTECH Medic.
- Ed started his apprenticeship in 1990 where he received an award for top apprentice for all building trades in his graduating year.
- ED has been a Volunteer Fire Fighter for many years and a certified Trainer/Facilitator for the Ontario Fire Marshal for about 6 years and is now a Captain with his local volunteer Fire Dept. which consists of 170 Fire Fighters at 6 Stations. Hence the nick name.
- Ed is a certified First Responder Instructor for the Canadian Red Cross and will be upgraded to a certified Emergency Medical Responder Instructor early 2009.
- ED has been married for 20 years and is the proud father of 3 boys. Home is a small town near the Chemical Valley in Sarnia, Ontario.
